

THE DIABOLICS

MEET THE BAND

The Diabolics are a Boulder based band performing a mix of rock, blues and funk designed to get you grooving and moving.

They've combined their love of wannabe-hobo living, delta blues culture and iconic classic rock for a blended style that offers an innovative twist on the quintessential sounds of American music.

Maybe they missed the devil at the crossroads or maybe they haven't found the crossroads yet, but The Diabolics play like they were born with it.
